The Good Luck Grill opened its doors in Manor, Texas, November 2007. Since then, our locally-owned family restaurant has become a community favorite. With a loyal customer following from Manor to Taylor and from Pflugerville to Elgin, the Good Luck Grill provides more than good food; the GLG is a place for people to gather with friends, family and colleagues for meetings, fellowship, events, and special occasions.

The Good Luck Grill serves delicious 100% Angus beef burgers, fried catfish, chicken fried steaks, salads, and other tasty American fare and southern comfort food. The whole idea behind comfort food is to nourish the body and the spirit – to sooth and bring cheer. Our food is created with that in mind.

The restaurant sits in a ten acre pasture just outside of Austin, TX that offers plenty of space for a wide variety of special events. Come visit our little slice of the county! We invite you to enjoy a great view of the sunset from our front porch, a friendly game of washers, delicious food and an all around good time!

Music

Enjoying live music on the Good Luck Grill outdoor covered patio is a delightful way to spend the evening. We bring in local bands playing old time rock and roll, rockabilly, country, and blues. One of our most popular music series is “Songwriter Saturdays”.

Songwriter Saturdays is a monthly series hosted by our neighbor and friend, local songwriter and performer JimBro Lutz. Texas is known nationally for its songwriters and particularly central Texas. Each month two invited songwriting guests join Jimbro and the backup band performing original compositions. Jimbro’s barn dances and pickin’ sessions are legendary. He knows great music which is evident in the caliber of performers and artist he brings together on Songwriter Saturdays on our back porch.

Don't be surprised to see 10 - 12 extra guitar cases around... many songwriters also come to enjoy the special guests and often sit in to add even more variety to the musical mix. Join us for a relaxing evening on the porch with good music, good fun, and good food.
